Connecticut Food Ship for Belgium. Over 1,500,000 women, children and other non-combatents are in the Bel-gian bread line. Unless America is to let starve those whom she has saved until now, more food must be supplied.

The Connecticut committee of the commission for relief in Belgium has set to work to load a "Connecticut food ship" jointly with the international commission, which has agreed to meet whatever is raised here dollar for dollar. All administration expenses are guaranteed; every cent contributed will reach Belgium in the shape of food.

The commission has offered to meet whatever we raise, dollar for dollar. Connecticut's half of this shipload will cost approximately $100,000, of which the greater part must be secured in large subscriptions. Every dollar con-tributed will actually reach Belgium in the shape of food, without any Gifts of money, large and small, may be sent either to Gen. William A. Aiken, Norwich, or to Charles C. Russ, state treasurer, care Hartford Trust company, Hartford. SIMION E. BALDWIN

THE DEVIL

Feature Picture in Five Parts at the Davis Today-The Action of the Isabella, the wife of wealthy Alfred Zanden, has come to the studio of Harry Lang, her former sweetheart, to have her portrait painted. Just as Isabella is in the act of draping a shawl about her bare shoulders, a suave and fashionably attired gentleman mysteriously appears at her side, it is The Devil in human garb, but to the startled Isabella he introduces himself as Dr. Miller, a friend of Harry Lang. Thus, evil incarnate comes ry Lang. Thus, evil incarnate comes into the lives of an artist and his old love, wedded to another man. The story unfolds with startling rapidity sfory unfolds with startling rapidity and the climax comes when Harry receives a letter from Isabella, written at The Devil's instigation, informing him she will elope with him the following day. This letter The Devil uses to induce Milli the artist's model, and who is in love with Harry to expose his apparent unfaithful. ry to expose his apparent unfaithful ness to Elsa, his finance. Finally, the artist and Isabella are discovered in the studio with The Devil listening outside to a love scene between the two. The former disappears exultingly exclaiming: "My work is finished," and the picture ends when he is seen amid the flames of the infernal regions. Harry and Isabella appear and beseech him for mercy, but they are told that God alone can save them. told that God alone can save them from the dire effects of their own folly and sin.

The vaudeville feature on the bill is the Song and Dance Revue. A company of eight people presenting songs and dances, past and present. Other Mutual Movies and a very funny comedy complete the bill today.

COMING TO THE DAVIS.

The Outlaw's Revenge, Featuring Mae Marsh, Robert Harron, Teddy Sampson and Walter Long Also in Splendid Cast.

General Francisco Villa, the Mexican bandit Napoleon, who fashioned a moredn army out of the raw rangers of the plains of Chihuahua, is the hero of The Outlaw's Revenge in the Dawn of a New Republic; another of the series of Mutual Masterpictures. These four and five reel feature films have already caused a notable improvement in the moving drama all over the country. The production was made by the Reliance company in four reels under the direction of W. Christy Cabanne. R. A. Walsh plays the outlaw, General Villa, and he is ably supported not only by the always desupported not only by the always de-lightful Mae Marsh, but by Robert Harron, Eagle Eye, Irene Hunt, Ted-dy Sampson, Walter Long, W. E. Law-rence, Spottiswodde Altken and F. A. Turner as well.

The photography is vivid and clear, The battle scenes are characterized by thrilling action on a large scale. The guerrilla fighting, when Villa flees for his life, the charge of the Consti-tutional cavalry and the defense of the wagon train all give the spectator quick starts of satisfaction. The lighter moments Mae Marsh makes inter-

WILL PAY FOR CARGO

OF STEAMER DACIA French Senate Appropriates to Reimburse Nentrals for Cargoes Selzed.

Paris, July 3, 5 p. m.—The French senate today unanimously appropriated $500,000 to be used by the minister of marine in payment for cargoes of neutral vessels that have been seized, and especially of that of the American steamer Dacia. The Dacia formerly belonged to the Hamburg American line. After changing her registry, she sailed from Gelveston, Tex., with a cargo of cotton destined for Germany. On reaching European waters, she was picked up by a French cruiser and taken into Brest A French prize court, after hearing the case, recommended that the French government purchase the cargo.

HARTFORD THEATRE

DAMAGED BY FIRE. Parsons Was Closed for Summer Started in Second Balcony.

Hartford, Conn., July 8.—Parsons theatre, one of the best known playhouses in Hartford, was considerably damaged by fire and water late today, causing a loss of several thousand dollars. The fire started in the second balcony, presumably from defective wiring. The theatre was closed for the summer and the watchman was away when the fire broke out, the blaze being discovered by a passerby. blaze being discovered by a passerby. The damage, mostly by water, was estimated at $20,000.

$900,000,000 SUBSCRIBED

FOR WAR LOAN And More Coming In to Austro-Hungarian Government.

New York July 8.—The Austro-Hungarian consulate general today called attention to a recent despatch from Vienna regarding the second Austro-Hungarian war loan, which stated that the subscriptions amounted to 2,650,000,000 crowns ($530,000,000) to 2,550,000,000 crowns ($550,000,000). The consulate general pointed out that this was not a complete statement of the facts and that in reality the subscriptions on June 25 had reached the amount of 4,500,000,000 crowns ($900,-000,000) and were still coming in.

Hartford.-Verandas to wards Nos. Hartford.—Verandas to wards Nos. 3 and 4 at the Hartford hospital were recently opened for the first time. These were built by using part of the money George M. Cohen raised for the hospital with his benefit performance of "The Miracle Man" at Parson's threater, in the fall of 1914.

which will be awarded to the best imitators of the famous picture co-median. All this will be entirely in addition to the regular bill which includes a corking musical comedy en-titled the "Girl From Shanley's" and several fine photoplays, including the popular film star King Baggott in "A Life in the Balance" a two reel drama of exceptional interest.

COLONIAL THEATRE.

Francis Bushman in "Return of Richard of Neal," Three Reel Drama.

With such an attraction for today as Francis Bushman, in the role of Richard Neal, Psychological expert, assisted by the famous Nell Craig of the big Eshanay company, the patrons of the Colonial are assured of one of the finest bills of motion pictures of the season. This story tells of a young daughter of a wealthy father, who falls under the mesmeric power of a culprit, who uses her to secure valuable paintings, money and other valuables from her home. While she is engaged in her hypnotic work, she is discovered by a member of the family, who engages Rchard Neal, the greatest of all experts, to study the and regulated system of theft going on in this way throughout the houseshold, and exposes the criminal who is carrying on the dastardly work. Bily Quirk the little Vitagraph come dian, is seen to excellent advantage in The Boarding House Feud, a rollicking story full of fun and non-sense, Iola, the Christian, a Selig drama completes the bill for today. Prepare to start the most wonderful and beautiful serial ever made on Tuesday. The Goddess, which appears every night in the Boston American in story form. Don't miss the first reels, Tuesday.

NEW HORSES ENTER

FOR FAIR GROUNDS RACES All Will Make Fast Going in the 2:30 Trot or Pace

Three more horses, all in the 2:30 trot or pace, purse $200, have been entered for Saturday's races, to be given by the Connecticut Amusement Association on the fair ground track at Norwich. Duke Gentry, a son of the once-famous John R. Gentry, is owned by Leonard Currier of Fair Haven; Mary S. by Cecelian Prince, is owned by William Saunders of Derby; and Lucre the Third, by Lucre T., is owned by Pat Donovan of Derby.

This makes a string of horses in both the 2:20 and 2:30 that will show some speed Saturday on a track that was not greatly damaged by Monday's storm and which, by the day of the races, will be in apple pie order for fast work by the horses as well as by the motorcycles.

All the open races, among the motorcycles, up to the "big 15" as the longest thing on the card is generally called, are sure to see some great going, with tight fights at the finish between Fred Nixon, "Don" Pope, "Sid" Brown, "Wild Bill" Burdick, "Farmer" Latham of Lebanon, and the other local men, Chappell of Hanover and Baldwin of Norwich. Burdick is ready to ride the race of his life in a great effort to bring home the bacon in the fight against Nixon, his oldtime rival, as well as Pope from Massachusetts and Brown from St. Louis, two men that have never raced in this part of the state.

Mike Costello, the New Yorker who beat Carroll and the rest of the bunch beat Carroll and the rest of the bunch by his superior ability to get around the turns quickly, will be on hand, determined to retrieve his hard luck of September 26th, when, owing to trouble with his machine he had to drop out of the final in the seven-mile open, although he had won his trial heat by a big margin. The side-car pusuit race, with four

To fix you fast with as fine a spell.

Pit you each with his Spanish phrase.
But do not detain me now, for she lin-There, like sunshine over the ground; And ever I see her soft white fingers Searching after the bud she found.

Flower, you Spaniard! look that you grow not, Stay as you are, and be loved for Bud, if I kiss you, 'tis that you blor Mind! the shut pink mouth opens Mind: the shut pink mouth opens never!
For while thus it pouts, her fingers
wrestle,
Twinkling the audacious leaves between,
Till round they turn, and down they nestle,
Is not the dear mark still to be seen?

Where I find her not, beauties vanish;
Whither I follow her, beauties fice.
Is there no method to tell her in Spanish
June's twice June since she breathed
it with me?
Come, bud; show me the least of her traces: Treasure my lady's lightest footfall; Ah! you may flout and turn up your faces. Roses, you are not so fair after all.

n quickly gathering gloom
Beside an unknown way.
Benighted travelers see a figure loom
And falter in dismay.
They meet nor thief nor ghost;
The phantom, bravely eyed,
A timely helper proves; a finger post
Their onward steps to guide.

Anon.
